

LAV - HERMA sex toy

Design: Richard Yasmine
Production: JCP Universe, 2018

*"You have been so good
That your lover has brought you
Lavish punishments"*

Haiku by Alistair Gentry

Herma small container comes with the idea of overcoming the horrifying reality of war through irony. The rocket thus becomes a humorous, yet functional, home accessory. An object that exorcizes fear, proposing a new vision of reality. When opened, the vase reveals a surprise and the bang effect of a bomb causes an explosion of joy and pleasure...

Materials: sex toy, suitable as vase too, with base and cap in 3d printed ABS with dark bronze finishing. Container body and inner dildo in selected matt marbles.

Dimensions (W x D x H): Ø 13cm x 30cm
