

NAGINAM - M table lamp

Design: rlon
Production: JCP Universe, 2022

*“Heavenly spearhead
You meet yourself approaching
From both directions”*

Haiku by Alistair Gentry

Line and sphere are the protagonists in Naginam lamps. Within the framework of minimalistic geometry and elementary materials, those two are having a conversation. Each composition is a still image of this dialogue, a snippet, a moment frozen in time: the lamp becomes a character of its own and makes room for reflection on the conversations we are having every day, with others and with ourselves.

Materials: table lamp with metal structure varnished matt black with matt brass inserts. LED filament bulbs. Electrical cable covered in black or white cloth.

Dimensions (L x P x H): 29cm x 18cm x 49cm
