

SURANDE floor lamp

Design: Alessandro Zambelli
Production: JCP Universe, 2016

*“Winning but always
Distracted by the beauty
Of things out of reach”*

Haiku by Alistair Gentry

Sculpted from marble and illuminated by a visionary light, Surande is a wonder-object that goes beyond the dimension of reality. The suspended glass sphere reflects the light creating an iridescent and beguiling atmosphere which transforms the environment revealing a new dimension.

Materials: floor lamp, suitable as side table too, in turned Carrara marble with matt treatment. Cool white LED spotlight at the well inner base. Suspended reflective sphere in iridescent borosilicate glass with adjustable height by reel system. Metal sliding arch in porcelain-like white finishing.

Dimensions (W x D x H): Ø 65cm x 45 - 160cm
